ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT CENTER EMPLOYEE EARNS CEM DESIGNATION

Glenview, IL—Association Management Center (AMC) is pleased to announce that Brian Fitzgerald has been awarded the Certified in Exhibition Management (CEM) designation. This designation is gained through participation in educational programming offered by The International Association of Exhibitions and Events (IAEE, formerly IAEM), and is recognized throughout the exhibition and event industry as the premier mark of professional achievement.

Brian has been with AMC for 9 years and serves as senior manager for the National Association of Neonatal Nurses and the Awards and Recognition Association.

Kathryn Checea, director of sales and professional relations, comments, “We are excited that Brian achieved this important designation and pleased about the high level of professionalism and standards that this will bring to our clients at AMC.”

Brian achieved this recognition by meeting all the necessary requirements for the CEM, which include being active in the exhibition and event industry for at least 3 years; being of acceptable character, ability and reputation; and having completed the educational requirements.

Association Management Center has been the respected leader in association management for over 30 years. AMC (www.connect2amc.com) is a trusted partner of 25 leading national and international organizations and has a staff of more than 180 association professionals. AMC provides strategic guidance to boards and volunteers and oversees day-to-day operations, making it possible for its association partners to achieve their goals.
