MIDWEST ROOFING CONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION SELECTS ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT CENTER FOR FULL-SERVICE MANAGEMENT

Glenview, IL—The Midwest Roofing Contractors Association (MRCA) has selected Association Management Center (AMC) for full-service management. MRCA will relocate their association headquarters to Glenview, IL on January 1, 2010.

MRCA is an association of roofing contractors who have joined together to develop and administer programs and services that help member companies build their business, while continually working to improve the roofing industry. MRCA represents the needs of contractors to manufacturers, consultants and other regulatory agencies. MRCA was founded in 1950.

Ronnie McGlothlin, Empire Roofing, Inc, MRCA Board President remarks, “We are excited to enter into this partnership with AMC. We believe AMC’s leadership and resources are what we need at this critical time for MRCA, and this will result in great things for our members and the organization.”

Mark Engle, CAE, AMC Principal, comments, “We are pleased to have MRCA as an association partner. We are excited about the possibilities of working with the MRCA leadership to further their mission and establish MRCA as the leader in their field. MRCA is a nice complement to AMC’s other trade association partners. We see many synergies between MRCA and our other construction-based partners. “

Tom Drake, CAE, will serve as the executive director of MRCA. Drake has over 15 years of experience in nonprofit management.

Association Management Center has been passionate about helping associations achieve what you believe for over 35 years. AMC (www.connect2amc.com) is a trusted partner to 25 leading national and international organizations and has a staff of more than 180 association professionals. AMC provides strategic guidance to boards and volunteers and oversees day-to-day operations making it possible for its association partners to achieve their goals.
